

ONGOING

Camp volunteers

The Armed Services YMCA is seeking volunteer chaperones to assist with a youth summer camp from July 12 to 20. While both male and females are welcome, there is a shortage of women volunteers. The camp is for military children with a special focus on those with deployed family members. Special skills are not required. Volunteers must submit to a background check and be at least 18 years old. To volunteer or for more information, call the ASYMCA at 353-5962.

Roads are ready

Road on Fort Wainwright are open for motorcycle riders. Riders must successfully complete the motorcycle safety course to drive their two-wheelers on post. Sign up for Motorcycle Safety Training with the Safety Office by calling 353-7079.

THIS WEEK

WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY Kindergarten round up

Kindergarten registration takes place from 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. at Arctic Light Elementary School. Parents should bring the child's birth certificate, shot records, Social Security card and proof of address, such as a letter from housing or a telephone or cable bill. Children should be accompanied by their parents, so students may be pre-screened. Children must be 5 on or before Sept. 1, 2008, to register for kindergarten. For more information, call 356-2038, ext. 201.

THURSDAY Soldiers transition

Soldiers expecting to separate or retire within the next two years may attend Pre-deployment and Pre-counseling offered by the Army Career Alumni Program from 8 to 10 a.m. ACAP can provide important information needed for the transition to civilian life. Register by calling 353-2113 or visit the ACAP office in Bldg. 3401, Rm. 248.
